KYAH BOUTIQUE HOTEL Blackheath

Take a 1970s motel, hand it over to Sydney's MKD Architects for a complete reimagining and you have a brand new look for the Blue Mountains: a luxe boutique hotel with a Palm Spring feel. The Kyah's 46 guest suites, ranging from king rooms (from $225pn) to two bedroom suites (from $360), are Art Deco-inspired in muted tones; all have a Smart TV, wi-fi and minibar. Blaq restaurant focuses on local, seasonal food, helmed by chef Mate Herceg, who is also the hotel's general manager. It's all set on 0.8ha of beautifully landscaped grounds with a tennis court.
